PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

ADAPTABILITY

Adaptability is a skill that enables a person to change behaviour, attitude, and practices to adjust to new situations of life and career. This skill is necessary since human conditions of life, work and relationships change depending on changes in situations of life. This quality facilitates continuous improvement in life and career and leads to well being.

Adaptability is essential for harmony in social life and happiness in personal life. It avoids numerous occasions of misunderstanding, conflict, fear and prepares to manage differences in society, family and workplace. Being adaptable facilitates for peace in oneself and one's society. Adaptability is so necessary in the modern multicultural and global society.
