Father Baiju Antony CM, Principal of DE PAUL College, Mandya, who delivered the presidential address. He commended the NSS volunteers for their dedication throughout the camp and emphasized the importance of service to the community, stating that such initiatives instill values of empathy, leadership, and responsibility among the youth.

The program was inaugurated by Rev. Father Sijo Antony CM, Dean of DE PAUL College, Mandya. In his speech, he appreciated the collaborative efforts of the volunteers, the faculty, and the villagers. He encouraged the students to continue contributing to society, highlighting the significance of selfless service in shaping the future of the nation.

Prof. Joshy P J, HOD, Department of Management, addressed the gathering by expressing his admiration for the efforts put in by the volunteers. He spoke about the role of young people in community development and encouraged them to use the skills and values learned during the camp to bring about positive change in society.

Dr. Licy K. C, HOD, Department of Commerce, focused on the importance of social responsibility and how such camps help students to build a sense of community and teamwork. She praised the success of the camp and motivated the students to carry forward the spirit of service into their professional lives.

Mr. Naharaje Gowda and Mr. Kalegowda Somwnna, Heads of Karekura village, also addressed the gathering, thanking the NSS team for their contributions to the village. They expressed their gratitude for the various activities undertaken during the camp, including the cleanliness drives, health camps, and awareness programs, which had a lasting impact on the community. They urged the volunteers to continue their good work and assured them of the village's support in future initiatives.

Mr. Ajay M, the NSS Programme Officer, emphasized the importance of social service in shaping responsible citizens and thanked the volunteers for their commitment to making a positive difference. He also acknowledged the support of the college administration, the village heads, and the local community in ensuring the camp's success. In his concluding remarks, he encouraged the students to carry forward the lessons of teamwork, compassion, and leadership gained from the camp into their future endeavors.

The NSS Special Annual Village Camp held at Karekura village from 1st to 7th March 2025 was a resounding success, marked by a week of impactful social service and community-building activities. Throughout the camp, NSS volunteers engaged in a variety of programs, including cleanliness drives, tree plantation (Vanamahotsava), yoga sessions, desi games, health check-up camps, and special lectures on topics such as legal awareness, cybercrime, mental health, and youth empowerment.

The camp fostered strong connections between the volunteers and the local villagers, with over 100 villagers benefiting from the health camps and many more participating in awareness programs and cultural activities. The Swachata programs, such as the cleaning of Shri Ram Temple, promoted the value of cleanliness and hygiene, while tree plantation efforts helped raise environmental awareness. The participation of village heads, community members, and faculty from DE PAUL College, Mandya, provided guidance and support, ensuring the smooth conduct of all activities.

The camp concluded with the Valedictory Program, where speeches from dignitaries such as Rev. Father Baiju Antony CM, Rev. Father Sijo Antony CM, and NSS Programme Officer Mr. Ajay M inspired the volunteers to carry forward the values of service, teamwork, and responsibility. The contributions of the NSS volunteers made a lasting impact on the village, leaving behind not only tangible improvements in the community but also a sense of unity and purpose.

In conclusion, the NSS camp was a testament to the power of youth involvement in social development. It not only provided the volunteers with hands-on experience in community service but also empowered the villagers with knowledge and resources. The camp reinforced the core values of the NSS motto, "Not Me, But You," instilling a sense of social responsibility among the participants. The successful completion of the camp marked a positive step towards building a better, more cohesive, and socially aware society.

NOT ME BUT YOU

The phrase "Not Me But You" is the motto of the National Service Scheme (NSS). It reflects the essence of democratic living and emphasizes the spirit of selfless service. The idea is that the welfare of an individual is ultimately linked to the welfare of society, and service to others should come before personal interests.

NSS UNIT, DE PAUL COLLEGE – HEARTFELT GRATITUDE

The NSS Unit of De Paul College extends its sincere thanks to the Management, Teaching and Non-Teaching Staff, and Students for their invaluable support and cooperation in making our One-Week NSS Annual Village Camp a grand success. Your encouragement, active participation, and dedication played a crucial role in the smooth execution of our camp activities, helping us uphold the NSS motto – "Not Me But You" – through meaningful community service
